First published in 1883. A Family Portfolio of Natural History, Biography, and Bible Scenes. Our lives receive coloring from everything with which we come in contact. As some colors fade, while others are enduring, so with the influences which affect us. There is nothing that abides with us longer than the sentiments we read. As has been said, The written words, the unspoken thoughts that we have once admitted to the shrine of our minds, are there forever. How important, then, that our reading be of a nature which shall develop our noblest powers, tending to lift us above the fitful, unworthy pleasures of this world, and to fit us for a home in heaven! With this aim in view, -of helping to elevate the thoughts and motives, and to cultivate a taste for that which will feast the soul, and give eternal good, -the editor has sought to make this little volume an aid in forming a true and noble character. Such thoughts have been carefully selected as would, either...
