Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Political Socialism, a Remonstrance: A Collection of Papers by Members of the British Constitution Association, With Presidential Addresses by Lord Balfour of Burleigh and Lord Hugh Cecil The watch-words of our Association are personal liberty and personal responsibility. Its object is to increase liberty and to inculcate responsibility, and as we believe that self-help is the mainstay of national character, we desire to maintain the freedom of the individual, which freedom ought to be limited only in so far as is necessary for the enjoyment of equal freedom by others. We resist the usurpation of power by Government, or the subjection, either of the individual or of the minority, to coercion on the part of the majority of the community. We believe that the only safe path of progress lies in the continued advance of that freedom, and in the ever-increasing emancipation of the individual from interference by the community in the management of his personal affairs. If I rightly interpret the intention of those who chose as our title the British Constitution Association, it was to take as our motto a phrase which connotes the widest expression of freedom the world has ever seen.
