Emereo Classics, Australia, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The original Phantom: Before the Andrew Lloyd Webbers musical, there was Gaston Leroux's original novel The Phantom of the Opera. If you have never seen the production stage, and know only a few things of the story, then when you reach the middle of the narrative you will be surprised because it is totally different from what you will expect. And it is a great surprise. More than a love story, The Phantom of the Opera is a gothic tale of obsession --leading to madness. The Paris Opera House and its hidden rooms, and underground are the perfect place to develop a horror story. Leroux noticed this potential. His descriptions of the place are creepy and in the end we start wondering if it is not a true story indeed. Leroux was very smart, writing a novel like he was only reporting something --and not creating a work of fiction. Therefore there are police reports, newspapers scraps, witness interviews. More than a narrator, the person who is telling the story is only gathering useful information for the reader. His characters are real human beings --even the ghost, of whom throughout the narrative we realize that he is the one with most human characteristics. Sometimes, Christine is a little stereotypical, mostly when she says she wants to be the mistress of her faith or something like it. And so is Raoul --but that doesn't diminish the qualities of this engaging novel. All in all, this is a French classic that is highly recommended.
