The use of a split log drag finally won its way and resulted in better roads at less expense. F. In Recreation. A recreation field gave the young people a permanent place for plays and games. The whole town uses it for picnics, festivals, etc. An annual recreation field day or a sort of old home day has done much to develop community interest. Monthly public entertainments of real value have been given instead of haphazard events. Local dramatics have helped to hold the interest. e 1 A community recreation day. of young people. Play apparatus in schools greatly reduced the problem of playground discipline and gave incentive and purpose to play activities. Organized athletics, baseball and basketball, held the loyalty of both boys and girls to other things in the town. A July 4th celebration did much to develop the patriotic motive. It dealt with local historical events. The people remained at home and enjoyed a quiet though impressive day. A May day celebration enlisted the children of the schools in an event which they felt was their own. G. In Civic Affairs. The improvement of public property has increased the civic pride so that many homes are being improved through planting. Through the removal of bill boards one town got rid of unwholesome pictures which were constantly before their...
