Ave Maria Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 215 x 139 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Many Catholic parents are tempted to leave the religious education and spiritual formation of their children to their parish or Catholic school. Professional catechist, popular blogger, and father of two, Marc Cardaronella has a passionate plea for those parents: Be your child's primary educator in the faith by what you do and say. This practical guide gives parents what they need to create a faith-nurturing environment at home. When Marc Cardaronella started his job as a catechist, he could empathize with parents who came to him to talk about how their now-grown children had left the Church because he had been there: Despite years of religious education and regular Mass attendance, Cardaronella never really practiced his faith and stayed away for twenty years. Now it's his mission to equip families like yours to hand on your faith. His passionate message is that the faith formation children need is not taught in standard religious education classes and probably never will be. Cardaronella is on a quest to help parents fill the gaps by first strengthening their own faith. He gives parents the tools to pass that faith on to their kids and make it stick by teaching them how to pray with their children consistently, about adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the power of the Examen prayer, and how to motivate kids to be engaged in parish life and Christian outreach.
