Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memorial of the 121st and of the 122nd Anniversary of the Settlement of Truro The committee la charge of the publication of this pamphlet, in performing their duty, exceedingly regret that the delay has rendered it impossible to furnish the Guardian s account of Truro s eventful Natal Day, as well as to give the address delivered by P. A. Laurence, Esq. Q. C., on the memorable occasion, published in September or October, 1882, in that newspaper. After much diligent inquiry for the missing numbers of the Guardian, by advertisement and otherwise, they are not forthcoming. If not discovered in time for the present publication the committee hope that the matter of a supplementary nature in the form of an appendix, will be found of sufficient historical importance to, in some measure, compensate for that which has been lost. The great aim of the committee has been to omit no part of the proceedings in the first Natal Day of our town that could in any manner illustrate any phase of Its past history, or be used to the advantage of the place at any future period. It will be noticed that the Natal Day speeches, as well as the Historical Sketch of Truro, by Mr. Craig, in the appendix, only relate to the history of the town up to the date of its first Natal Day. It will also be noticed that the proceedings are referred to as a Memorial of the 122nd and of the 121st, though advertised as the 123rd Anniversary of the settlement of Truro by the British. In explanation of this it may be said that while there is ample...
