Excerpt: . . . 11 make reform of the American high school a national priority. I be-lieve it is time to apply the bipartisan principles of No Child Left Behind to grades 9 through 12. President Bushs 2006 budget would provide 1. 5 billion for a high school initiative to improve the academic achievement of at-risk students and measure performance annually to ensure all stu-dents get the help they need. The budget also contains unprecedented financial support for students taking advanced placement classes, new enhanced Pell grants to encourage more challenging course work, and community college access grants to let students earn college level credit in high school for both academic and technical courses. The key to success, of course, is a highly qualified teacher in every classroom, and the Presidents budget would make perma-nent the increase on loan forgiveness from 5, 000 to...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
