

The Great Match Race: When North Met South in Americas First Sports Spectacle

By John Eisenberg

Houghton Mifflin. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 272 pages. The Great Match Race is a captivating account of Americas first sports spectacle, a horse race that pitted North against South in three grueling heats. On a bright afternoon in May 1823, an unprecedented sixty thousand people showed up to watch two horses run the equivalent of nine Kentucky Derbys in a few hours time. Eclipse was the majestic champion representing the North, and Henry, an equine arriviste, was the pride of the South. Their match race would come to represent a watershed moment in American history, crystallizing the differences that so fundamentally divided the country. The renowned sportswriter John Eisenberg captures all the pulsepounding drama and behind-the-scenes tensions in a pageturning mix of history, horse racing, and pure entertainment.
